DSAC HOSTS CAPRICORN DISTRICT SOCIAL COHESION DIALOGUE

The Department of Sport, Arts and Culture will host Capricorn District Social Cohesion Dialogue aimed at promoting cultural tolerance within communities and social integration regardless of age, gender, religion, and tribe. The dialogue will further discuss on how to curb Gender Based Violence (GBV) and Femicide, which is the greatest challenge that is threatening the safety and cohesiveness of communities. The dialogue is held in response to the Social Cohesion and Nation Building Strategy which promotes that communities should live in a socially cohesive and peaceful manner.

The dialogue will showcase the cultural diversity of Capricorn as a district through traditional dance parade and indigenous food. The Dialogue is scheduled as follows:

Date : 17 February 2022 (Thursday)

Time : 09H00

Venue: Jack Botes Hall in Polokwane,

Polokwane Municipality, Capricorn District
