Limpopo to host the competition for the provincial “I CAN SING” Project

The Department of Sport, Arts and Culture will host the provincial competition for “I CAN SING” project at Oasis Lodge, outside Polokwane on Saturday the 23rd of October 2010 at 12:00. The aim is to select the final winners (10 artists out of the 50 artists) from the five districts -Sekhukhune, Capricorn, Vhembe, Mopani and Waterberg. The winners will be given an opportunity to record a full compact disc with own songs compilation.

This annual project that started last year 2009 by the department promotes the different kind of music genres available in the province. It also assist the upcoming artists to cut their own compact discs and promote local artists.

These project forms part of the department’s investment in cultural projects which creates jobs and alleviates poverty.
