SEKHUKHUNE HOSTS INDIGENOUS GAMES 2015

As part of the preparation for the provincial and national Indigenous Games; Sekhukhune District will host the district games this coming Saturday. The Department of Sport, Arts and Culture utilises the games to promote social cohesion and nation building. Similar to other sport and recreation codes, indigenous games impact positively on some socio-economic issues such as African identity; cultural diversity; education and training.

The games furthermore encourages healthy lifestyles, and discourage unwanted social behaviour by keeping the youth engaged in the games and campaign for the recognition of the games as part of the sporting codes.

This year's activities include the rich indigenous heritage games like Morabaraba, Jukskei, Dibeke, Ncuva, Khokho, Diketo, Kgati and Drie Stokkies. The Waterberg District Indigenous Games will be held as follows:
