INTERNATIONAL TRANSLATION DAY CELEBRATION

The Department of Sport, Arts and Culture will host the 2016 International Translation Day under the theme “Translation and interpreting: connecting worlds”. International Translation Day is celebrated internationally on the 30th of September to celebrate the work of translators and interpreters who through their efforts build bridges between different cultures and assist in the facilitation of communication amongst people about the importance of translators and interpreters.

The day presents an opportunity for paying tribute to the work of translators, terminologists, interpreters and language practitioners in general who endeavour to make the world a slightly smaller place by breaking down language barriers and allowing great literature to be enjoyed far more widely. The Department will join the rest of the world in dedicating this event to celebrate the International Translation Day.
