DSAC hosts Vhembe Heritage Liberation Seminar

The Department of Sport, Arts and Culture, as the custodian of arts and heritage will host the Vhembe Heritage Liberation Seminar as part of the build-up process of developing Limpopo Heritage Liberation Chapter. The seminar will assist in the identifying the sites and profiling the heroes and heroines of the National Liberation Heritage Struggle (NLHS). The seminar of this magnitude will also be held in all the remaining districts, Waterberg, Mopani, Capricorn and Sekhukhune.

The main objective of the seminar is to stimulate interests for further studies on the subject to students and prepare a nomination dossier for the possible declaration of the identified sites either as National Heritage Sites (NHS) or Provincial Heritage Sites (PHS).

The seminar takes place as follows:

Venue : University of Venda, Art Gallery, Thulamela Municipality, Vhembe District
Date : 06 September 2013
Time : 09:00

The National liberation Heritage Route is a flagship programme of the African Liberation Heritage Route in Africa- an African initiative of African Union member countries and Southern African Development Community- SADC whose liberation struggle had a global, continental and regional dimension.
