DSAC celebrates Mandela Day through Library Awareness Campaign in Makhado Municipality

The Department of Sport, Arts and Culture will join South Africans and the international community in honouring the former State President and the international icon Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela. The Department will spend its 67 minutes cleaning Mukondeni Community Library as part of the departmental library awareness. The department will further hand-over sporting equipment and playing attires to the community teams.

The theme for this year's Mandela Day is "Dedicate 67 minutes To Clean South Africa". The 67 minutes campaign provides an opportunity for everyone to respond to the President's call to action by participating in activities to clean up and beautify every part of South Africa.

DSAC Mandela day celebration will be held as follows:

Date : 18 July 2014
Venue: Mukondeni Community Library, Makhado Municipality, Vhembe District
Time : 10:00
