MEC hands-over Sporting Equipment to Dzivhuluwani-Dzwerani Old Crocks F.C.

The MEC for Sport, Arts and Culture, Mme Nandi Ndalane will hand over sporting equipment and playing attire to the Dzivhuluwani-Dzwerani Old Crocks Football Club. The MEC's outreach programme is utilised as a mechanism that elevates the sporting activities for older persons. The intention of the ceremony is to celebrate active aging through soccer while the goal is to ensure that older persons are well taken care of, supported and participate in sporting activities to promote healthy lifestyle.

The Dzivhuluwani-Dzwerani Old Crocks Football Club which has been running for the past five-years is specifically for women pensioners in Dzwerani village in the Thulamela Municipality in the District of Vhembe. Currently the team is utilising minwenda the Venda traditional regalia as soccer playing attire.

The handing over ceremony is scheduled as follows:

Date : 19 July 2015 (Sunday)
Venue: Christ Living Worship Centre, Dzwerani Village,
Thulamela Municipality, Vhembe District
Time : 09:00
