MEC Thandi Moraka call on the public to vote for Shudufhadzo Musida

Limpopo MEC for Department of Sport, Arts and Culture, Hon. Thandi Moraka is calling upon all South Africans to vote for former Miss SA and Miss World contestant Shudufhadzo Musida who is currently in Puerto Rico for the pageant. Shudufhadzo is vying to become the fourth South African to win the pageant after Penelope Anne Coelen (1958), Anneline Kriel (1974) and Rolene Strauss (2014) brought the titles back home.

MEC Moraka is hopeful that Shudufhadzo will go out and bring the title home to the country and the province of Limpopo. "We strongly believe that Shudufhadzo has all it takes to be crowned Miss World and therefore making a call to all South Africans to vote for her because her progression to the next stage of the event depends on the public vote".

There are three ways to vote for Shudufhadzo:

- Like and follow the Miss World – South Africa Facebook Page
- Download the mobstar app. Search for @shudumusida and follow her, click the star on all her photos to show some love.
- Vote for her the miss world website.

The 70th edition of the Miss World pageant will be held on December 17, 2021, at the José Miguel Agrelot Coliseum in San Juan, Puerto Rico.
