LIMPOPO HOSTS PROVINCIAL SPORT INDABA

The Department of Sport, Arts and Culture will host the Provincial Sport Indaba from the 31 January to the 1st February 2015; as pronouncement by the Premier of Limpopo during the State of the Province Address (SOPA) and the Sport and Recreation South Africa Department. The Provincial Indaba will reflect on how the programmes are delivered and the challenges encountered thereof.

The indaba will further discuss the school sport; sport development and recreation programmes, respectively. The objective of the Indaba is to integrate sport programmes with communities', municipalities', sister departments' and federations' programmes. The Indaba will also come up with a strategy on how to support elite athletes and clubs playing in the professional leagues and further develop a strategy on how to turn academies to be an effective system of delivering sport in the province.

The Provincial Sport Indaba will be held as follows:

Date : 31 January 2015 – 01 February 2015
Venue: Bolivia Lodge, Polokwane Municipality, Capricorn District
Time : 07:00 @ arrival and registration
