NATIONAL SUMMER GAMES FOR INTELLECTUALLY IMPAIRED ATHLETES

Polokwane: Limpopo is the host of this year's SA Open Summer Games 2017. This is national tournament for the intellectually impaired athletes. All nine provinces are represented. The Department of Sport, Arts and Culture is behind the SASA-II (South African Sports Association for the Intellectually Impaired) in hosting the games in Polokwane on behalf of Limpopo Province Sports Association for the Intellectually Impaired.

During the opening ceremony, the MEC for Sport, Arts and Culture Onicca Moloi appreciated the role played by the intellectually impaired teachers as they are committed in making sure the kids are educated and participate in sport and not discriminated against

"We urge the sporting fraternity to take the issues of disability in sport very seriously," said MEC Moloi.

There are several sporting codes such as cricket, table tennis, swimming, indoor rowing.
