DSAC HOSTS THE LIMPOPO PROVINCIAL RURAL SPORT DEVELOPMENT GAMES

Limpopo Department of Sport, Arts and Culture have embarked on a Rural Sport Development Programme focusing on the most disadvantaged communities, particularly in the rural areas and areas under traditional leadership. The programme which is aimed at creating an integrated and sustainable mechanism of the development of rural sport focuses on the following sporting codes; athletics, netball, football and Rugby for boys and girls, respectively.

In Limpopo, the provincial games are a culmination of leagues developed at traditional councils in all areas of the province. Through these leagues different sport codes were played throughout the year. The leagues were organised at local level Ga-Seopela and Moletši Traditional Councils. The teams will compete at a provincial level. These leagues will be channelled into the mainstream, beefing/feeding local federations.

Limpopo Provincial Rural Sport Development Games will take place as follows:

Date : 29 May 2017
Venue : University of Limpopo, Mankweng Township
Polokwane Municipality, Capricorn District
Time : 10H00
