Attention Editors and Journalists

Sport, Arts and Culture set to host Provincial Indigenous Games 2024

The Sport, Arts and Culture MEC Funani Jerry Maseko is set to officiate the opening ceremony of the Provincial Indigenous Games, as part of Heritage Month celebrations. The Indigenous games programme is aimed at promoting and preserving heritage of the diverse people of Limpopo. These indigenous games create a platform to promote and preserve the cultural heritage, showcasing sports and activities that are deeply rooted in the history and traditions of indigenous communities.

The Provincial Indigenous Games not only celebrate the cultural diversity of Limpopo but also emphasize the importance of preserving and safeguarding indigenous knowledge systems and the practices for future generations. The Annual Indigenous Games Festival will be held from 24-25 September at Bela Bela Stadium in Waterberg.

The participants from all the five districts of the province will showcase their talent and competing in various indigenous games such as Kgati, Diketo, Morabaraba, Ncuva, Moruba; Dibeke. Jukskei; Kho-Kho, Drie Stokkies and lintonga.
